EL PASOANS HAVE STRUGGLE IN SNOW

Finally Reach City After Being Three Days Snowbound.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Cohlentz, of 1145 Rio Grande, Maurice Swartz and Fred Norton, of El Paso, were passengers on the Golden State Limited No. 2, which came in this morning at three o'clock, having been held up by a blizzard since Sunday afternoon, when it was due in El Paso at 2:30 p. m.

According to the passengers, the train ran into the blizzard about two o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Could Not See Out of Windows. "It was the most terrible blizzard I ever saw," said Mrs. Cohlentz. "The wind was blowing terribly and the snow was flying so thickly you couldn't see out of the car windows at all. The train slowed up, but continued on until about three o'clock Sunday, when it had to stop, as it ran into snow so thick that it backed up to the car windows. From trying to force through the snow banks, the cowcatcher of the engine became disabled and the headlight wrecked.

"The train stopped at Logan, N. M., and we had to stay there fast in the snowbanks until Tuesday afternoon, when the snow plow reached us and began to dig a way out for us."

"We were very warm and comfortable on the train, and had plenty to eat. The telegraph poles were all down, some of them along the track had been broken in half by the weight of the snow and the force of the wind. It was some time before we could get any messages through."

More Snow Above Tucumcari. Heavy snows on the Rock Island tracks above Tucumcari, which fell again last night, are tying up the Rock Island trains on the southwestern. No through trains have come in since Sunday over the southwestern's tracks. A Rock Island came in last night over the Texas & Pacific tracks. Rock Island Southwestern No. 3 of Tuesday and Wednesday have not been heard from, though they are expected to arrive some time today. No report has been received on Southwestern No. 32, due at 7:40 p. m. This train only goes as far as Tucumcari, since the snowstorms, but it is expected to get through soon.

ROOSEVELT BOOSTERS PLAN FOR CAMPAIGN

Boston, Mass., Feb. 28.—The leading volunteers in the campaign for Theodore Roosevelt in Massachusetts had a final meeting with their candidate today before his departure for New York.

Several who have just enlisted for the fight were introduced to Mr. Roosevelt and there was a council of war as to the selection of a leader for the Massachusetts forces. It is understood no decision was reached on this point.

Mr. Roosevelt was asked what he thought of the prospects here and of the result throughout the country of his announcement that he was willing to accept the nomination.

"I have absolutely nothing to say," he replied.

Organization of the Roosevelt movement has succeeded in spurring into activity the supporters of the present administration. It was announced that at a meeting Saturday the Taft Business Men's league would be formed.

REAL ESTATE ACTIVE

Cotton Addition The Center Of Attraction

Judging from the large number of lots sold in Cotton Addition during the last few weeks, it must be the most attractive proposition in El Paso real estate. One reason for unusual activity is the extremely liberal terms. Mr. Walter B. Grant, of Boston, executor and attorney for the E. B. Cotton estate, is in the city looking after the improvement of the property, and has authorized A. P. Coles & Bros., agents, to put all planned lots north of Overland street on the market on the following terms: One-sixth cash, balance in one, two, three, four and five years. This puts El Paso's last close-in property within reach of anyone even with the most limited means.

If you are looking for a home site or investment, you had best see Cotton Addition at once.

SAYS MADRERO IS PROMISE BREAKER

Vera y Estanol Says in Case of Intervention, Much Blood Would Be Shed.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 28.—"Any Mexican government that should consent to the occupation of a foot of Mexican soil by any foreign power would be torn to pieces instantly," declared senior Vera y Estanol, minister of public instruction in the last cabinet of president Diaz, of Mexico, in an interview here today.

"The intelligent Mexicans," he added, "who are striving for a stable government—for law, order, credit and the protection of property—would be wholly unable to control the situation if American troops once crossed the border. The United States, I hope, never will take so ill-advised a step."

"President Madrero has an enormous cause for dissatisfaction. By his rash and unstatesmanlike promises he has aroused the leaders of the present movement. At the time of the former uprising he made the usual bid for the support of the laboring classes by promising better wages and a division of the land. These promises are returning upon his head."

"Another mistake was the breaking of the agreement whereby Francisco I. Madero was to have been elected vice president on the ticket with Madrero."

DEMANDS PROBE OF DUPONT'S ACTIONS

Senator Reed Says Delaware Senator Recommended an Unfit Man.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 28.—An array of evidence heard by the judicial committee in its inquiry into the appointment of C. F. Swain as United States marshal at New York was laid before the senate today by Mr. Reed, of Missouri, in arguing the passage of his resolution providing for an investigation of the election of senator Dupont, of Delaware. Senator Reed insisted that this evidence given credence, the senate should not only investigate the 1910 election but should demand of the Delaware senator an explanation of his action in "recommending for appointment to the high office of United States marshal a man whom he knew to be engaged in corrupt practices."

"I deem this to be my solemn duty," said the senator, "and I am glad if a thorough investigation results in completely exculpating the senator from Delaware."

"The disclosures made by the witnesses are of such character as to demand further investigation. That investigation ought to be conducted by an impartial man."

"With an alacrity which was astonishing the appointment was reported to the senate by the committee, and on the day it reached the senate conference was rescinded. The matter was referred to the committee and an investigation demanded by citizens of Delaware headed by William Sausbury was held."

Senator Reed reviewed the testimony given by the judicial committee, declaring there was unimpeached evidence that thousands of dollars were distributed for the sake of Dupont. Such, at least, is the newspaper statement.

"In some way citizens of Delaware learned of the fact and protested to some member or members of the senate with the result that the appointment was rescinded. The matter was referred to the committee and an investigation demanded by citizens of Delaware headed by William Sausbury was held."

TAFT HEARS BAILEY IN ROOSEVELT ROAST

Washington, D. C., Feb. 28.—President Taft last night heard senator Bailey, of Texas, denounce Roosevelt's third term ambitions and saw 600 members of the University club rise to their feet and applaud the utterances.

Senator Bailey declared that "if the present president is not a good enough Democrat to do so."

He jokingly invited the president in case of failure at Chicago to enter the Democratic party.

The president confined his speech to the value of university training. He laughingly asked senator Bailey to tell him which branch of the Democratic party he would be received in, but made no other political reference except to chide his hearers for their applause of political remarks.

Militia sentries made the rounds to investigate, and sheriff Peyton Edwards and deputies, carrying Winchester and Remington rifles, made a careful inspection of the surroundings. The closed no suspicious circumstance. The militiamen thought the guard of the electric company had fired the shot, and the guard said a militia sentry had fired them.
